

LET THEM BE LITTLE

A program of self-led play for parents &
young children

FREE!
A Program for Somers Children,
Ages 1-5, and
Their Parents.

Let Them Be Little is a program for parents and their young children, focusing on self-led play and exploration in nature. Each week, you'll explore different "play urges" a child intuitively wants to try, such as rolling, throwing, spinning, hiding. These are known as schemas, and they're good, healthy (and fun!) building blocks for a young child's brain. Led by Story Barn co-owner and children's author Renata Bowers, on seven gracious acres of land at The Story Barn.

(Bubbles & a story time included!)

When: 5 Tuesdays, 9:00-10:30am April 19-May 17
